

Federal Emergency Management Agency

§ 360.1

(12) Participation in NRC adjudicatory proceedings and any other site-specific legal forums.

(13) Alert and notification system reviews.

(14) Responses to petitions filed under 10 CFR 2.206.

(15) Disaster-initiated reviews and evaluations.

(16) Congressionally-initiated reviews and evaluations.

(17) Responses to licensee's challenges to FEMA's administration of the fee program.

(18) Response to actual radiological emergencies.

(19) Development of regulations, guidance, planning standards and policy.

(20) Coordination with other Federal agencies to enhance the preparedness of State and local governments for radiological emergencies.

(21) Coordination of REP Program issues with constituent organizations such as the National Emergency Management Association, Conference of Radiation Control Program Directors, and the Nuclear Energy Institute.

(22) Implementation and coordination of REP Program training with FEMA's Emergency Management Institute (EMI) to assure effective development and implementation of REP training courses and conferences.

(23) Participation of REP personnel as lecturers or to perform other functions at EMI, conferences and workshops.

(24) Services associated with the assessment of fees, billing, and administration of this part.

§ 354.6 Billing and payment of fees.

FEMA will forward bills to licensees based on the assessment methodology set forth in § 354.4 to recover the full amount of the funds budgeted by FEMA to provide REP Program services. Licensees with multiple sites will receive consolidated bills. FEMA will forward one bill to each licensee during the first quarter of the fiscal year, with payment due within 30 days. If minor adjustments are necessary due to FEMA exceeding its original budget for the fiscal year, the adjustment will appear in the bill for the subsequent fiscal year.

§ 354.7 Failure to pay.

In any case where FEMA believes that a licensee has failed to pay a prescribed fee required under this part, procedures will be implemented in accordance with 44 CFR part 11, subpart C, to effectuate collections under the Debt Collection Act of 1982 (31 U.S.C. 3711 et seq.).

§ 360.1 Purpose.

The Emergency Management Training Program is designed to enhance the States' emergency management training program to increase State capabilities and those of local governments in this field, as well as to give States the opportunity to develop new capabilities and techniques. The Program is an ongoing intergovernmental endeavor which combines financial and human resources to fill the unique training needs of local government, State emergency staffs and State agencies, as well as the general public. States will have the opportunity to develop, implement and evaluate various approaches to accomplish FEMA emergency objectives as well as goals and objectives of their own. The intended result is an enhanced capability to protect lives and property through planning, mitigation, operational skill, and rapid response in case of disaster or attack on this country.
